

YOUR INVITATION TO EXHIBIT AT
THE WASHINGTON STATE TRAILS CONFERENCE
October 13-15, 2016 Richland, Washington

Participate in Washington's Only State Trails Conference!

An Exceptional Value and Opportunity to Learn from Trail Professionals and Meet Trail Organization and Agency Representatives

Once again, the Washington State Trails Coalition (WSTC) opens its biennial statewide conference to trail-oriented exhibits. This unique opportunity provides exhibitors with:

- Exceptional contact with clients – a maximum of 16 table top exhibits
- Outstanding visibility and access – all exhibits will be adjacent to the coffee break service and pre-function area
- Rates below industry standards

Agency leaders, individual trail advocates and trail organizations of all kinds participate in the Washington State Trails Conference to share success stories, skills, best practices and build a network that spans the state. Proceedings benefit trail planners and builders of all kinds – from urban active transportation trails to backcountry equestrian, bicycle, hiking or motorized trails. Up to 250 participants will come from across Washington State and beyond, representing government agencies, non-profit groups, trail clubs, and individuals just interested in trails.

Who should consider exhibiting?

- Businesses that cater to trail users in Washington State
- Trail, outdoor recreation, or active transportation oriented non-profit organizations
- Fitness and health-promotion organizations
- Local, state and federal agencies and land managers
